Obituary

Moses Benjamin King was born on March 11, 1972 in Liberia, West Africa to the late Mr. & Mrs. Charles and Rebecca King. He was affectionately known to family and friends as "PP."

He attended Ricks Institute in Virginia Monrovia, Liberia, and went on to attend AME Zion Community College. Moses relocated to the United States, where he furthered his education, attending Gupton-Jones Mortuary College in Decatur, Georgia, graduating with an Associates Degree in Funeral Service. Moses gained employment with Murray Brothers Funeral Home, Inc., Atlanta, Georgia, where he worked tirelessly in a profession that he loved. He continued to work with William G. Murray & Son Funeral Home, Atlanta, Georgia, continuing to work diligently in funeral service. Moses made so many friends in his 17 plus years within the funeral industry.

Moses was a very kind hearted person and he would take the time to do anything for anyone at any time. You could always count on Moses when in need. He loved his family and would do anything for them. He had so many connections with the Liberian community in the metro area and was sure to invite friends to come along and celebrate with him. Moses could make you smile, when you where having a bad day and turn any negative situation into a positive one.

Moses confessed our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ at an early age. He was a dedicated Deacon at Victory Tabernacle Church in Rockmart, Georgia serving under Senior Pastor Edward C. Anderson, where he served faithfully.

In 2015, Moses was afforded the opportunity to gain employment with the Georgia Department of Transportation, "HERO" unit. He was filled with excitement as he prepared for a new journey. During his short time with them, he was well loved and respected, and an exemplary employee.

On March 14, 2016, our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ called Moses Benjamin King, from labor to reward. He leaves to mourn his wife, Anna King; sons, Ian King and Christian King; his brothers, Winslow Findley and Curtis Findley; and a host of nieces, nephews, other loving relatives, and many dear friends.

"A HERO need not speak, when he is gone.
The world will speak for him."

Broken Chain

We little knew that morning God was to call your name.
In life we loved you dearly, in death we do the same.
It broke our hearts to lose you. You did not go alone.
For part of us went with you The day God called you home.
You left us beautiful memories. Your love is still our guide.
And though we cannot see you. You are always at our side.
Our family chain is broken, and nothing seems the same.
But as God calls us one by one, The chain will link again.
