My driving inspiration to always buckle up

Whether it's your children or grandchildren, your spouse, your parents, your dog, your cat, neighbors, or good friends, someone is counting on you to get home safely every day.

Picture the important people or pets in your life. Take a moment to add a small photo or two to the card provided. Consider leaving room for a personal, handwritten message to further inspire you to always buckle up.

Slip the card into a laminating pouch for protection and keep it where you'll see it often. Ideas to consider are storing it above your car's visor, displayed at your desk or in your home. Scan the card and save it as a digital reminder.

Commit To Click Your Seat Belt

I commit to observing state law by wearing my seat belt while on state business and when driving on personal time. I will also ensure that other occupants in my vehicle are safely buckled in when I am driving.

Myths and Facts about Seat Belt Use

Myth: Wearing a seat belt is a personal decision that doesn't affect anyone else.
Fact: Not wearing a seat belt can affect other motorists since wearing a safety belt can help you avoid losing control of your vehicle in a crash.¹

Myth: Seat belts prevent your escape from a burning or submerged vehicle.
Fact: Seat belts can keep you from being knocked unconscious, improving your chances of escape. Fire or submersion occurs in just 1/3 of 1% of all crashes—and the greatest danger is with the impact that precedes the fire or submersion in water.

Myth: Good drivers don't need to wear seat belts.
Fact: You are responsible for the mistakes of others as well as your own. Good drivers usually don't cause accidents.

Myth: I have an air bag to protect me—that's good enough.
Fact: Seat belts keep you in the proper position to benefit from the deployment of an air bag. If you are not wearing your seat belt, you could slide under the airbag or be thrown into a rapidly opening frontal airbag; a movement of such force could injure or even kill you. In addition, airbags will not help in rear impact or rollover crashes.

Myth: It takes too much time to fasten your seat belt 20 times a day.
Fact: It only takes 2 seconds to buckle up.

Traffic fatalities up as Georgians prepare for holiday travel

AUGUSTA, Ga. (WJBF) — Health officials are urging Americans not to travel this holiday season. Millions are still expected to travel by car over Thanksgiving. The Georgia Department of Transportation and Georgia State Patrol predict there will be “2,915 traffic crashes, 1,301 injuries and 20 traffic deaths on Georgia roads” from Wednesday, November 22 until Sunday, November 26.

Kyle Collins, a district communications specialist for the Georgia Department of Transportation, said as of November 23, there had been 1,350 traffic fatalities in 2020. This is an increase compared to the same time period in 2019. He said this is “likely due to several factors including increased speeds, distracted driving and lack of seatbelt use.”

“Just remember, every action that you take or don’t take can affect hundreds of people.”

Richmond County is seeing traffic fatalities first hand. 27 people have died on the roads in 2020.

“They’re [happening] all over the county,” Cpl. Chuck Benson said. “Places you wouldn’t expect to see fatalities, we’re seeing them.”

Safe Driving

Help Georgia DOT keep our roadways safe

Safety is the top priority for Georgia DOT. We are committed to preserving the safety of all travelers on our roadways through educational initiatives, preventative measures and programs.

In observance of National Traffic Incident Response Awareness Week, and in an effort to reduce or eliminate the causes of traffic incidents, Georgia DOT offers resources, materials and spokespeople to educate motorists about the dangers of excessive speed and distracted driving, which appear to be on the rise in 2020.

Combating Speeding, Distracted Driving and Lack of Seatbelt Use

Since the onset of COVID-19 in March 2020, Georgia has experienced an increase of roadway crashes resulting in fatalities. This disturbing trend endangers the safety of motorists and pedestrians, and is likely due to a number of factors including increased speeds, distracted driving and lack of seatbelt use. Hopefully temporary, this trend reverses a years-long decline in fatalities from crashes. Public awareness of the consequences of excessive speed and distracted driving is critical.
