

From Nickajack to Elliott's Rock—attractions such as Rock City, Neels Gap, Brasstown Bald, Tallulah Gorge and Rabun Gap traverse the State's beautiful and picturesque mountain region.

Vann House, 1804 Home of Cherokee Chief Vann; example of Indian wealth and culture. D-2

An original log cabin at Berry College. A unique campus, over 30,000 acres. Rome. B-4

Anna Ruby Falls. Spectacular falls amid unspoiled wilderness. Unicoi State Park is nearby. H-2

Helen, an Alpine village atmosphere with varied, all-season recreation and scenic splendor. H-2 Further north near Robertstown is the beautiful Richard B. Russell Scenic Highway. SR348. G-2

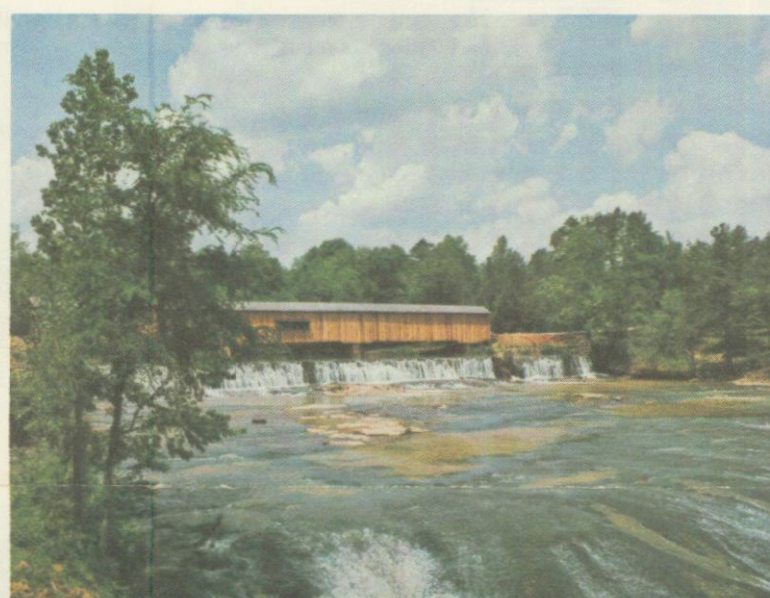

Panning for gold at Dahlonega. Museums and old mines recreate the exciting 1828 to early 1900's period. G-3

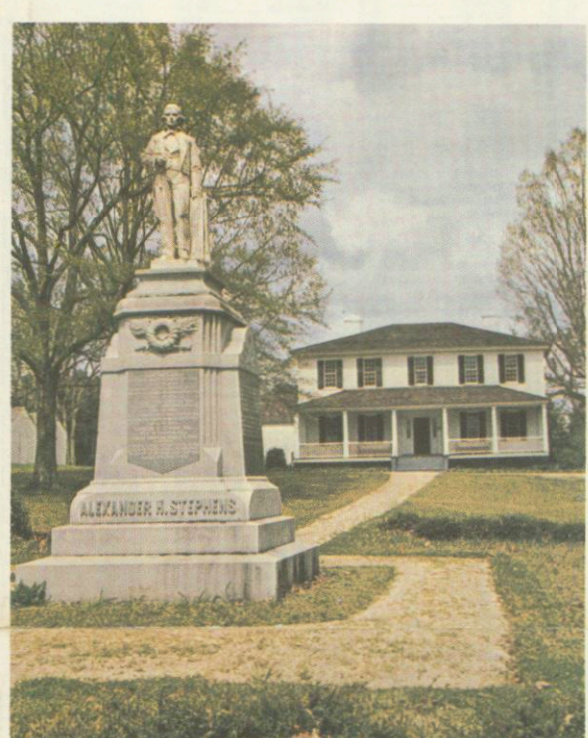

Six Flags Over Georgia presents an exciting and complete family entertainment center west of Atlanta. D-6

Atlanta Symphony Orchestra and Chorus at Memorial Arts Center. A Theater, Art Museum and College are housed at Center. E-6

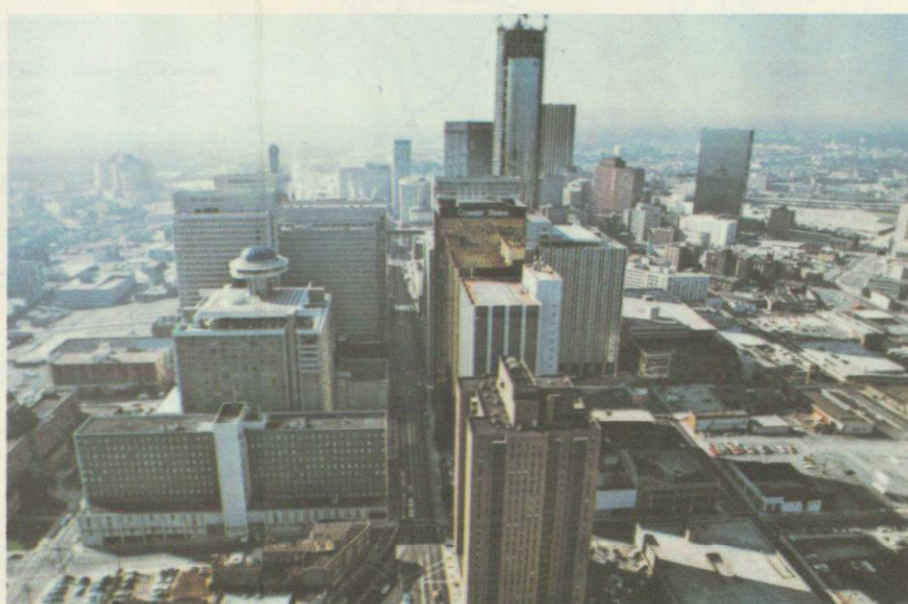

Watson Mill Bridge, longest covered bridge remaining in Georgia. Built in 1885, it is 236' long. Near Comer. J-5

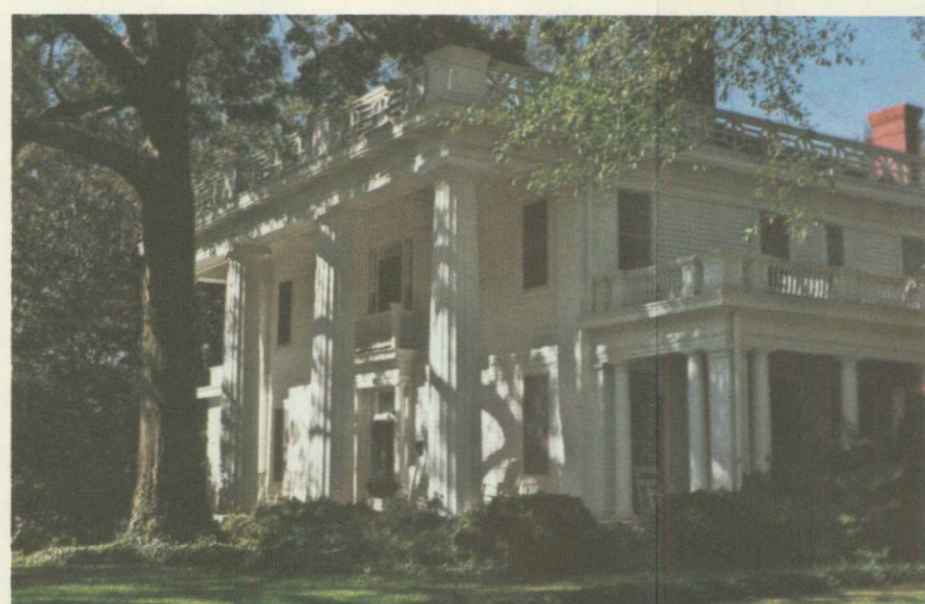

Liberty Hall, home of one of Georgia's greatest Statesmen, Alexander H. Stephens. Now a museum, with picnic area. Crawfordville. K-7

Lake Lanier Islands. Golf, resort facilities and family camping, 35 miles from Atlanta, near Gainesville. G-5

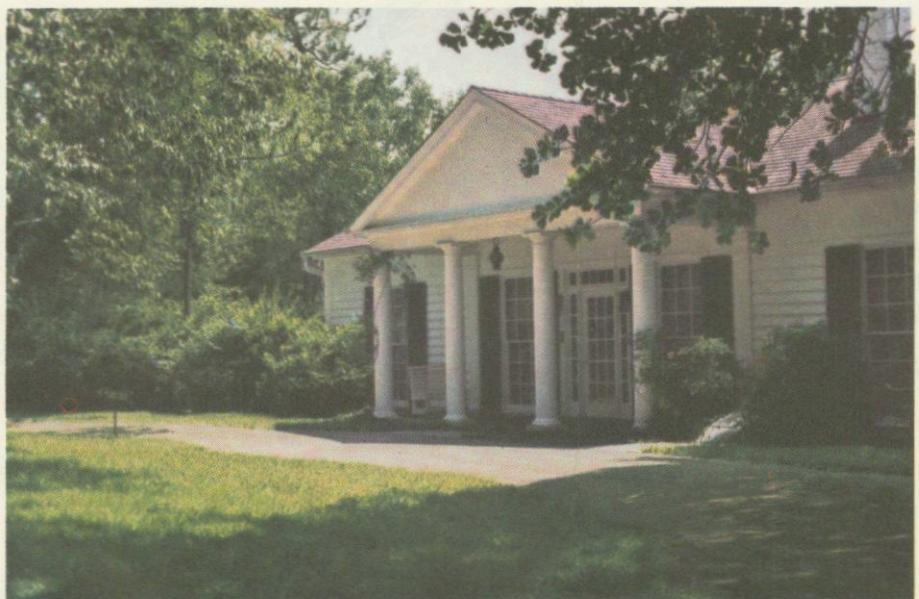

Atlanta's ever-changing skyline keeps pace with its expanding urban growth. Its airport is second busiest Air Carrier in the Nation. E-6

An impressive number of antebellum mansions, with gardens planted long ago, are still preserved in the Madison and Washington Areas. I-7, K-6

Masters Golf Tournament. Augusta was seat of Colonial Government during part of the Revolutionary period. M-8

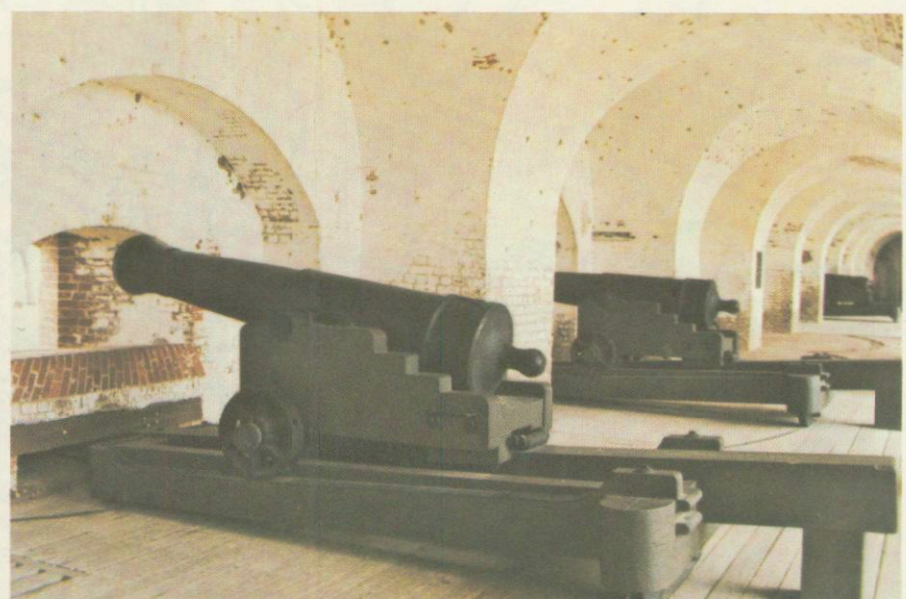

Little White House, Georgia home of the late President Franklin D. Roosevelt. Near Warm Springs. D-10

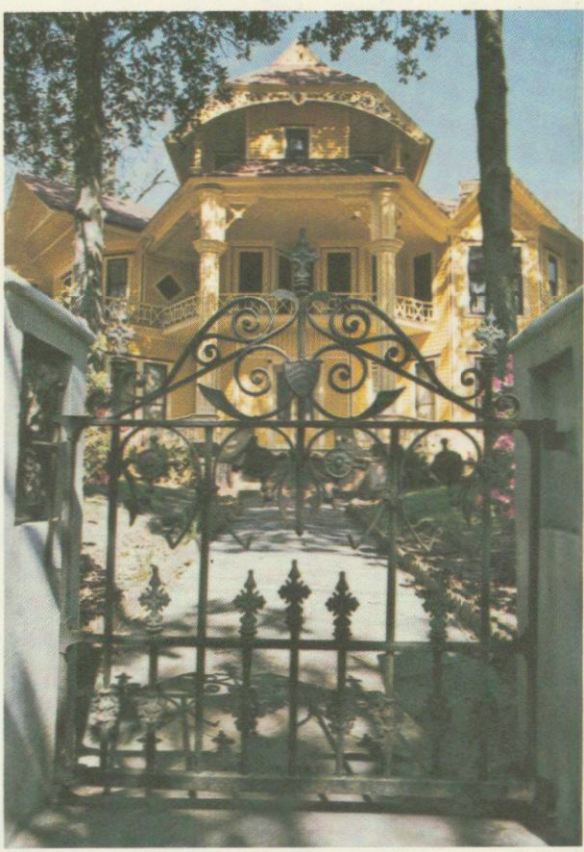

Hawkinsville. Only scheduled harness racing in Georgia. Large training facility, with ideal weather conditions. I-13

Factors Walk along restored Riverfront, Savannah. Originally settled in 1733, the inner city is now a National Historic Landmark. Q-13

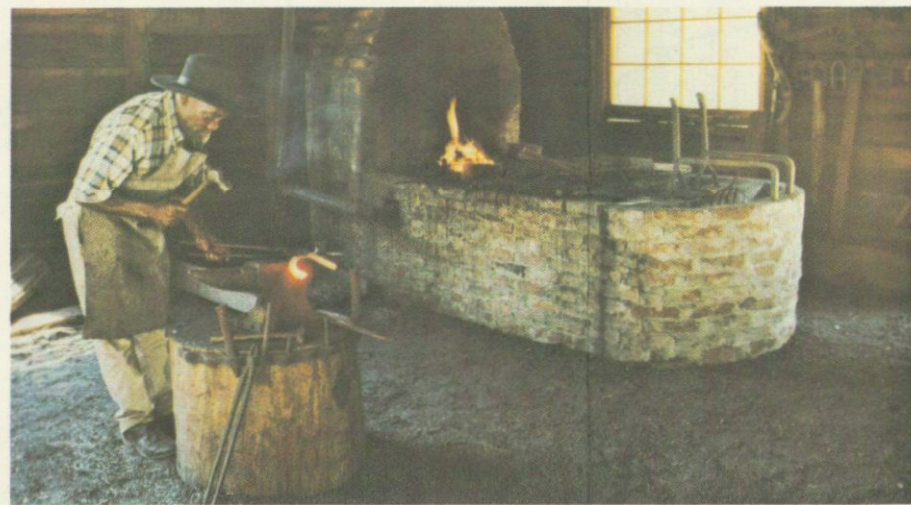

Named after General Casimir Pulaski of Revolutionary fame, Ft. Pulaski was Lt. Robert E. Lee's first military assignment. Savannah Beach. R-13

The Lapham-Patterson House (1885) exemplifies an innovative Victorian Period. A National Historic Landmark — Thomasville. G-19

Callaway Gardens offers complete family recreation amid scenic splendor year-round. Pine Mountain. G-10

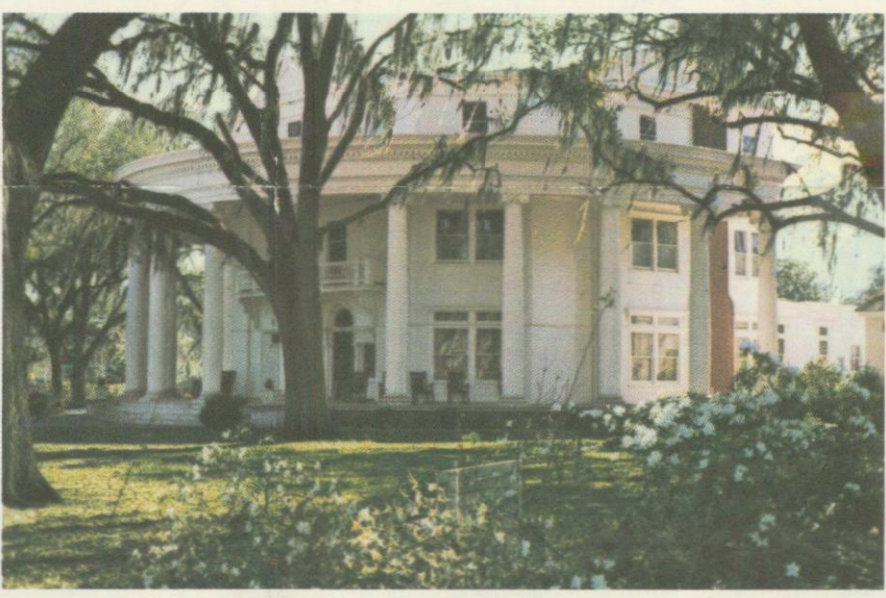

Westville, re-created town of the 1850's. An authentic collection of buildings. Lumpkin. Crafts of the era are performed. D-14

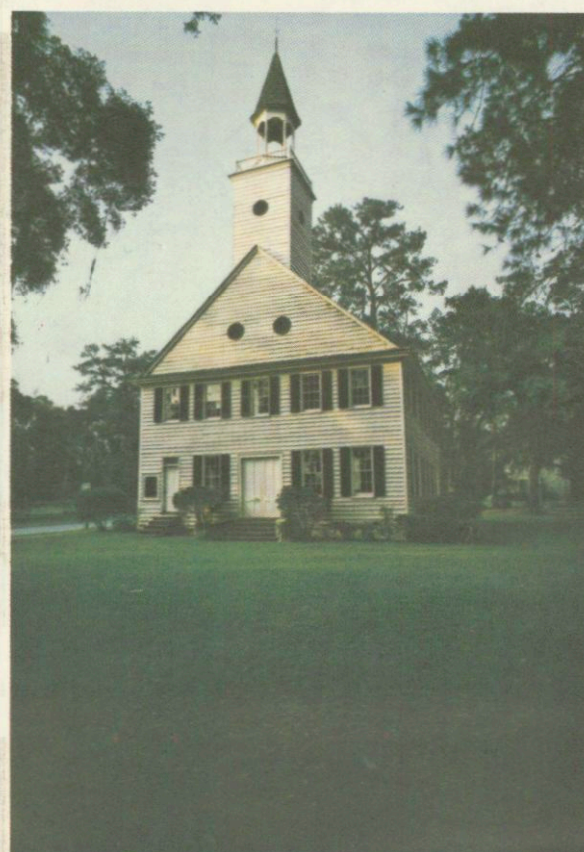

Depot at Plains. Presidential Campaign Headquarters for Georgia's first "First Family." E-14

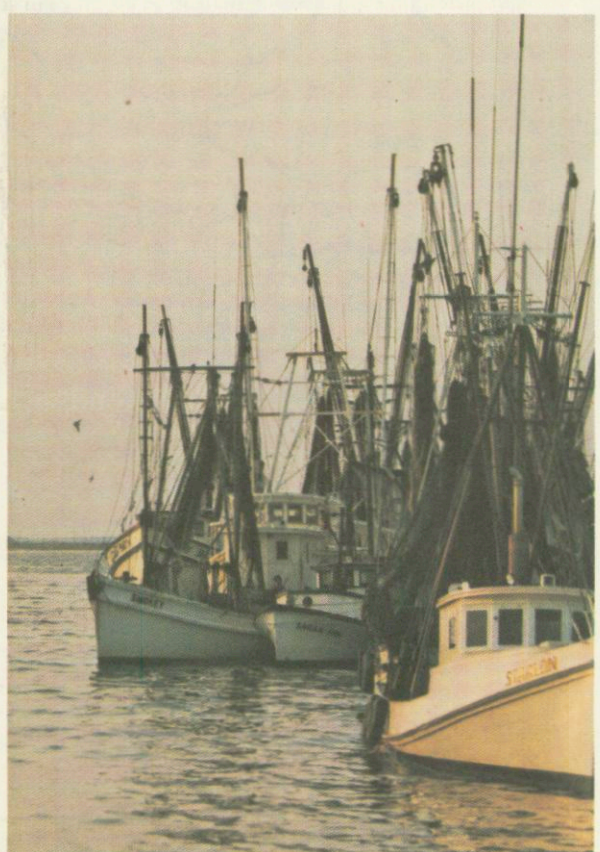

Andersonville National Historic Site, established 1864. Many States have erected Memorial Monuments here. F-13

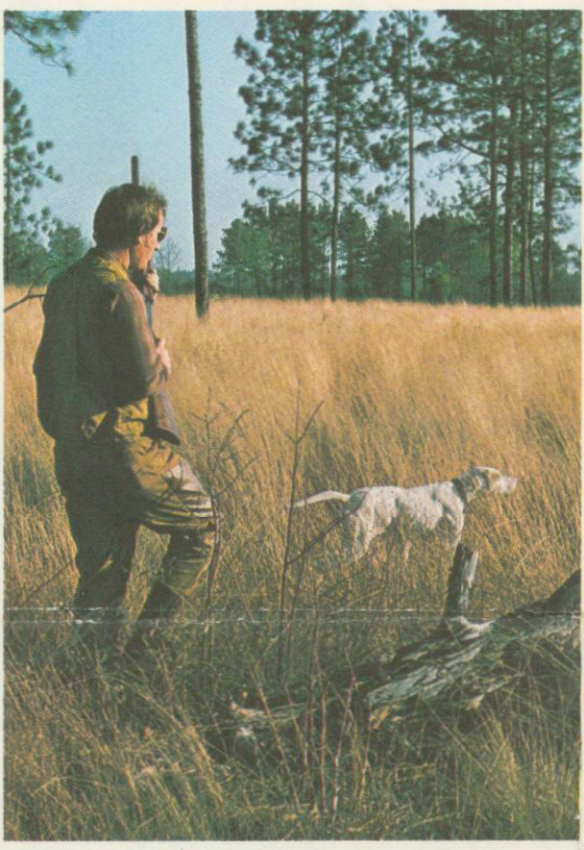

Crescent House, erected on semi-circle drawn by owner's cane. Ballroom on third floor seats 500. Built circa 1898. Valdosta. I-19

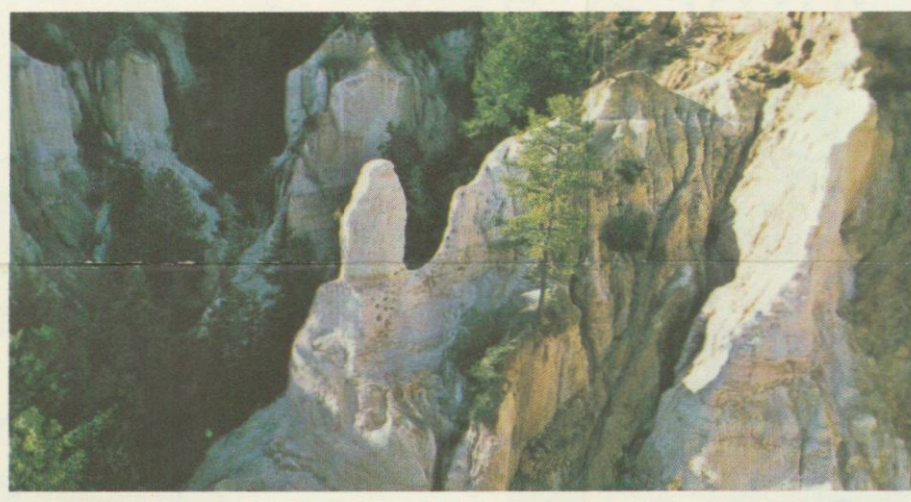

Midway Church and Cemetery date to Revolutionary period. One of the most historic landmarks in the Nation. P-14. A museum is adjacent.

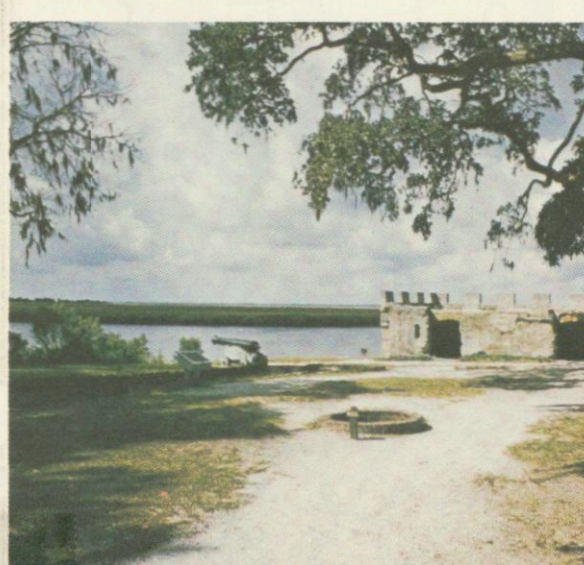

Shrimp boats at Darien. Area settled in 1736 by Scottish Highlanders. Nearby Fort King George, England's first fort in Georgia, was built in 1721. P-16

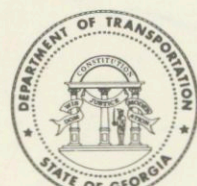

Quail Hunting Capital—Albany also boasts Radium Springs, largest natural spring in Georgia — 68' year-round. F-16

Providence Canyon, (Georgia's Little Grand Canyon), a protected area of unusual vegetation, near Lumpkin and Columbus. C-14

Fort Frederica, established by Oglethorpe in 1736. Battle of Bloody Marsh repulsed invading Spanish and established British sovereignty. P-17

Coastal Georgia, from Savannah to Saint Marys. Over 200 years of history. Today, a still unexploited vacation paradise. COVER PHOTOGRAPH: THE GOLDEN ISLES

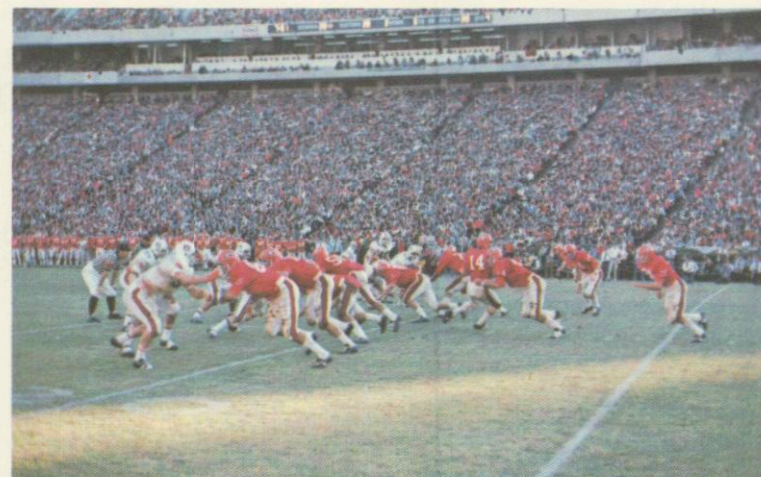

FLAMES BRAVES

HAWKS FALCONS

Big League sports find a home in Atlanta. The Flames and Hawks perform at the Omni Coliseum; the Falcons and Braves at the Stadium. E-6 Thirty miles south at Hampton (E-8) is Atlanta International Raceway.

Okefenokee Swamp — "Land of Trembling Earth" and home of Pogo. Near Waycross. M-18 for information on Georgia tourist attractions, write:

GEORGIA. FOR A GOOD TIME
Post Office Box 1776
Atlanta, Georgia 30301

Georgia

DEPARTMENT OF TRANSPORTATION
OFFICIAL HIGHWAY MAP 1977-78
FOR FREE DISTRIBUTION