

- May be used at intermediate bents at grade crossings and railroad crossings if dense material is encountered less than 20' from the ground surface
- Bottom of footing is at least 5' below ground line (assume 3' thick footing and 2' ground cover)
- Only use at stream crossings if hard rock encountered

CONCRETE BENT WITH SPREAD FOOTING