Contraflow on I-16 ending from US 301 to Dublin

I-16 eastbound lanes closed to traffic from Exit 116 to Savannah

What: Georgia DOT is removing contraflow operations from Dublin-Laurens County to US 301/Exit 116 in Statesboro-Bulloch County and preparing to return Interstate 16 to the normal configuration for both east and westbound travel lanes.

Eastbound lanes will be closed from US 301/ Exit 116 in Statesboro to Savannah.

No vehicles will be allowed access to I-16 eastbound lanes beginning at US 301 except emergency and first responders. All eastbound lanes from US 301/Exit 116 to Savannah will be restricted to use by those state and federal agencies responding to Hurricane Matthew and to service providers such as Georgia Power necessary in the relief efforts.

When: Beginning at 12:30 p.m. today
