Weigh-in-Motion project requires one more night of Columbia County I-20 lane closures

WHAT: The Columbia County Georgia Department of Transportation Weigh-in-Motion scale project now requires Thursday night westbound Interstate 20 lane closures for cutting loops in the roadway. Westbound lanes will still be affected in the vicinity of the scale stations for guardrail, roadway loop and electronic sensor or “piezos” installs tonight and tomorrow as previously announced.

This is part of a statewide project installing weigh scales in outside interstate lanes approximately 3,000 feet upstream of the existing 19 weigh stations.

WHEN: Tuesday, March 8: I-20 westbound, mile 188, one right lane closed from 9 p.m. to 4 a.m. the next morning;

Wednesday, March 9: I-20 westbound, mile 188, one left lane closed from 9 p.m. to 4 a.m. the next morning;

Thursday, March 10: I-20 westbound, mile 188, one right lane closed from 9 p.m. to 5 a.m. the next morning
